DETAILED ACTION
EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

The application has been amended as follows:

Claim [49] is hereby cancelled without prejudice.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 22,25-48 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: With regards to independent claim 22, patentability exists, at least partially, in "the moving protective element retracts to a position at least partially within the housing when moving from the first position to the second position" in combination with all of the limitations in the claim. With regards to independent claim 33, patentability exists, at least partially, in "said moving protective element being a foldable element that folds together during said plug-in operation to expose said electrical contact" in combination with all of the limitations in the claim. With regards to independent claim 41, patentability exists, at least partially, in "wherein an insertion force is applied to the moving protective element by the holding structure when the electric module is plugged into the holding structure thereby moving the moving protective element into an interior portion of a housing of the electronic module" along with all of the limitations in the claim.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably
